Quasr BV

PRIVACY POLICY

1 Introduction

We understand that you are aware of and care about your own personal privacy interests, and we take that seriously. This Privacy Policy describes Quasr's policies and practices regarding its collection and use of your personal data and sets forth your privacy rights. We recognize that information privacy is an ongoing responsibility, and so we will, from time to time, update this Privacy Policy as we undertake new personal data practices or adopt new privacy policies.

As a company that finds its roots in the European Union, and that considers compliance to privacy legislation, Privacy a core principle of its organization. Quasr has created this Privacy Policy based upon the foundations of the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

As GDPR currently is the most advanced and elaborate data protection legislation in the world, Quasr uses GDPR as its main benchmark for its company wide privacy program.

Seeing the global activities of Quasr, it goes without saying that with this Privacy Policy, in addition to GDPR, Quasr also wants to take into account the principles of other applicable data protection legislation (such as the California Consumer Privacy act of 2018, or the UK Data Protection act 2018), which principles are either already incorporated through GDPR (in most of the cases) or either has specifically been added to this Privacy Policy.

2 Privacy Officer

Quasr BV is headquartered in New Yorkkaai 85/302, 2000 Antwerpen, in Belgium (Europe). Quasr has appointed a privacy officer for you to contact if you have any questions or concerns about Quasr's personal data policies or practices. If you would like to exercise your privacy rights, please direct your query to Quasr's data protection officer. Quasr's data protection officer can be contacted as follows:

- Via email: privacy@quasr.io
- Via mail: New Yorkkaai 85/302, 2000 Antwerpen

3 How we collect and use (process) your personal information

Quasr collects personal information about its website visitors and customers. This information is generally limited to:

- Name
- Company Name
- Company Address
- Country
- Credit Card
- email

  For invoicing and contracting purposes

We do not sell personal information to anyone and only share it with third parties.

From time to time, Quasr receives personal information about individuals from third parties. Typically, information collected from third parties will include further details on your employer or industry. We may also collect your personal data from a third-party website (e.g. LinkedIn)

4 Use of the Quasr Website & Platform

As is true of most other websites, Quasr's website collects certain information automatically and stores it in log files. The information may include internet protocol (IP) addresses, the region or general location where your computer or device is accessing the internet, browser type, operating system and other usage information about the use of Quasr's website, including a history of the pages you view. We use this information to help us design our site to better suit our users' needs. We may also use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server and to administer our website, analyze trends, track visitor movements, and gather broad demographic information that assists us in identifying visitor preferences.

Quasr has a legitimate interest in understanding how members, customers and potential customers use its website. This assists Quasr with providing more relevant products and services, with communicating value to our sponsors and corporate members, and with providing appropriate staffing to meet member and customer needs.

5 Cookies & tracking technologies

Quasr makes available a comprehensive cookie notice that describes the cookies and tracking technologies used on the Quasr website and provides information on how users can accept or reject them. To view the notice, just click cookie notice on the website.

6 Sharing information with 3rd parties

The personal information Quasr collects from you is stored in one or more databases hosted by third parties located in the United States and the European Union. These third parties do not use or have access to your personal information for any purpose other than cloud storage and retrieval. On occasion, Quasr engages third parties to send information to you, including information about our products, services, and events.

A list of our third party sub processors can be found in our Data Processing Addendum.

We do not otherwise reveal your personal data to non-Quasr persons or businesses for their independent use unless: (1) you request or authorize it; (2) it's in connection with Quasr-hosted and Quasr co-sponsored conferences as described above; (3) the information is provided to comply with the law (for example, compelled by law enforcement to comply with a search warrant, subpoena, or court order), enforce an agreement we have with you, or to protect our rights, property or safety, or the rights, property or safety of our employees or others; (4) the information is provided to our agents, vendors or service providers who perform functions on our behalf; (5) to address emergencies or Force majeure; or (6) to address disputes, claims, or to persons demonstrating legal authority to act on your behalf. We may also gather aggregated data about our services and website visitors and disclose the results of such aggregated (but not personally identifiable) information to our partners, service providers, advertisers, and/or other third parties for marketing or promotional purposes.

The Quasr website connects with third-party services such as Gitbook, LinkedIn, Pingdom, Discord, and others. If you choose to share information from the Quasr website through these services, you should review the privacy policy of that service. If you are a member of a third-party service, the aforementioned connections may allow that service to connect your visit to our site to your personal data.

7 Transferring personal data outside the EEA

Some information we collect about you will be processed by partners outside of the EEA. Pursuant to Article 46 of the GDPR, Quasr is providing for appropriate safeguards by entering into binding, standard data protection clauses, enforceable by data subjects in the EEA.

Depending on the circumstance, Quasr collects and transfers personal data outside of the EEA with consent; to perform a contract with you; or to fulfill a compelling legitimate interest of Quasr in a manner that does not outweigh your rights and freedoms. Quasr endeavors to apply suitable safeguards to protect the privacy and security of your personal data and to use it only consistent with your relationship with Quasr and the practices described in this Privacy Policy. Quasr also enters into data processing agreements and model clauses with its vendors whenever feasible and appropriate.

For more information or if you have any questions, please contact us at privacy@quasr.io

8 Data Subject rights

The European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and other countries' privacy laws (such as the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, or the UK Data Protection Act 2018) provide certain rights for data subjects, including the following:

- Right to be informed
- Right of access
- Right to rectification
- Right to erasure
- Right to restrict processing
- Right of data portability
- Right to object
- Rights related to automated decision making including profiling

This Privacy Policy is intended to provide you with information about what personal data Quasr collects about you and how it is used.

If you wish to confirm that Quasr is processing your personal data, or to have access to the personal data Quasr may have about you, please contact us.

You may also request information about: the purpose of the processing; the categories of personal data concerned; who else outside Quasr might have received the data from Quasr; what the source of the information was (if you didn't provide it directly to Quasr); and how long it will be stored. You have a right to correct (rectify) the record of your personal data maintained by Quasr if it is inaccurate. You may request that Quasr erase that data or cease processing it, subject to certain exceptions. You may also request that Quasr cease using your data for direct marketing purposes. In many countries, you have a right to lodge a complaint with the appropriate data protection authority if you have concerns about how Quasr processes your personal data. When technically feasible, Quasr will—at your request—provide your personal data to you.

Reasonable access to your personal data will be provided at no cost. If access cannot be provided within a reasonable time frame, Quasr will provide you with a date when the information will be provided. If for some reason access is denied, Quasr will provide an explanation as to why access has been denied.

For questions or complaints concerning the processing of your personal data, you can email us at privacy@quasr.io

9 Data storage & retention

Your personal data is stored by Quasr on the servers of the cloud-based database management services, Quasr engages in, located in Europe and in the United States. Quasr retains service data for the duration of the customer's business relationship with Quasr and for a period of time thereafter, to analyze the data for Quasr's own operations, and for historical and archiving purposes associated with Quasr's services. Quasr retains prospect data until such time as it no longer has business value and is purged from Quasr systems. All personal data that Quasr controls may be deleted upon verified request from Data Subjects or their authorized agents. For more information on where and how long your personal data is stored, and for more information on your rights of erasure and portability, please contact us at: privacy@quasr.io

10 Children' data

We do not knowingly attempt to solicit or receive information from children.

11 Changes to this policy

At our discretion, we may change our privacy policy to reflect current acceptable practices. We will take reasonable steps to let users know about changes via our website. Your continued use of this site after any changes to this policy will be regarded as acceptance of our practices around privacy and personal information.

If we make a significant change to this privacy policy, for example changing a lawful basis on which we process your personal information, we will ask you to re-consent to the amended privacy policy.
